

Doug Dvorak to attend “Space Camp” at Worldview Spaceport in Tucson, AZ on January 18, 2023, in preparation for his 2024 liftoff!

Tucson, AZ, January 18, 2023: Doug Dvorak is pleased to announce he will be attending “Space Camp” at Worldview’s mission control and Spaceport in Tucson, AZ. Doug is scheduled to liftoff in early 2024.

About Worldview:

Arizona-based company World View Enterprises aims to start lofting paying customers on stratospheric balloon rides in 2024.

Aspiring space tourists now have another option to consider.

World View Enterprises is developing a balloon-based system that will carry people to the stratosphere, with the first commercial flights targeted for early 2024.

The typical ride will last six to eight hours and take passengers to an altitude of at least 100,000 feet (30,000 meters), where they'll be able to see the curvature of Earth against the blackness of space. But the overall experience will last five days, which will be spent in and around sites of natural beauty and cultural and historical significance.

The well-known sales coach and motivational speaker, who has delivered presentations and workshops in more than 100 countries to over a million people, will be working with CompTIA to help its team by covering the importance of sales and leadership.

In his workshops, Dvorak discusses issues, such as helping teams work together, allowing them to have fun without sacrificing efficiency and productivity, resulting in improved overall morale, increases in productivity and reductions in overall turnover.
