Motivational Sales Speaker Doug Dvorak to Inspire at Well Care's Annual Sales Meeting in Orlando, FL – August 19, 2025

Orlando, FL – August 10, 2025 – Well Care is proud to announce that internationally acclaimed motivational sales speaker Doug Dvorak will deliver the keynote address at its Annual Sales Meeting on August 19, 2025 in Orlando, Florida. Known for his high-energy presentations, humor-infused delivery, and proven sales strategies, Dvorak will inspire Well Care's sales force with insights designed to drive performance, engagement, and results.

With a career spanning decades, Dvorak has presented to audiences in over 100 countries, sharing his expertise in sales leadership, peak performance, and personal development. As a Hall of Fame motivational speaker and Master Certified Sales Coach, he has worked with Fortune 500 companies, small businesses, and associations, empowering sales professionals to reach their fullest potential.

"Doug's ability to blend actionable sales strategies with motivational storytelling will resonate deeply with our team," said Maria Diaz, Sales Director Well Care. "His keynote will set the tone for a year of growth, collaboration, and excellence."

The theme for this year's meeting, "Driving Connections, Delivering Results", aligns perfectly with Dvorak's philosophy that genuine relationships are the foundation of sales success. His keynote will explore:

- How to stay motivated and resilient in a competitive market
- Practical strategies for building stronger client relationships
- The mindset shifts that separate top performers from the rest

Dvorak's engaging style and results-driven message promise to leave attendees energized and equipped with tools to exceed their sales goals.
